"the Company" means Autoflame Engineering Limited;
"the Products" means the products sold or to be sold by the Company to the Purchaser;
"the Purchaser" means the person with whom the Company is contracting.
Any reference in these Conditions to any provision of a statute shall be construed as a reference to that provision as amended, re-enacted or extended at the relevant time.
Any references to "writing" or cognate expressions includes a reference to email, fax or comparable means of communication.
The headings in these Conditions are for convenience only and shall not affect their interpretation.

QUOTATIONS

These Conditions shall apply exclusively to all quotations given or contracts made or to be made by the Company, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by a director of the Company. The giving by the Purchaser of any delivery instruction or the acceptance by the Purchaser of delivery of the Products shall constitute unqualified acceptance by the Purchaser of these Conditions. Any Conditions submitted, proposed or stipulated by the Purchaser in whatever form and at whatever time, whether written or oral, are expressly waived and excluded. No change to these Conditions shall be binding unless agreed in writing by the Company. The placing of an order following our quotation shall not be binding on the Company until or unless confirmed by the Company in writing. Additions or alterations to orders, however made, shall not be binding until they have been confirmed by the Company in writing.

PRICE

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, prices are exclusive of:
costs of packaging and delivery which the Purchaser shall pay at the same time as payment for the Products; and any banking costs or fees associated with making payment to the Company for the Products which the Purchaser shall pay at the same time as payment for the Products. Purchaser shall reimburse Company for any such costs or fees in the event that Company pays such cost or fees.
Prices and costs of packaging and delivery are exclusive of value added tax which, where applicable, will be separately charged at the applicable rate and recoverable as part of the price of the Products.
The Company reserves the right by notice given at any time before delivery to vary the price of the Products if, after the date of the contract, there is an increase in the cost of the Products to the Company by reason of any circumstance outside the control of the Company including (without limitation) increases in the cost of materials, labour or transport, exchange rate fluctuations, increases in import levies or other taxes, war, hostilities or warlike operations. If the price of the Products is increased pursuant to this Condition 3.3, Purchaser may cancel the undelivered balance of the contract by written notice to the Company served within three days of receipt of the Company's notice.

PAYMENT

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, the Purchaser shall make payment for the Products by transmitting cleared funds direct to the Company's bank account. Credit may be granted subject to status.
Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, payment shall be made in full within 30 days from the date of the invoice. Payments made by post shall be at the risk of the Purchaser. Time for payment is of the essence of the contract.
Payment shall become due immediately if the Purchaser has a receiver or administrative receiver appointed over it or over any part of its undertaking or assets or passes a resolution for winding up or a court of competent jurisdiction makes an order to that effect or if the Purchaser becomes subject to an administration order or enters into any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business.
If any sums become overdue, the Company may (without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it) do all or any of the following (at its option):
suspend all further deliveries until payment in full has been made; charge interest at a annual rate of 8 per cent. above the base rate of Barclays Bank Plc on any sum not paid on the due date. Such interest shall run from day to day and accrue after as well as before any judgment and shall from time to time be compounded monthly on the amount overdue until payment; and cancel the contract as regards any Products which remain to be delivered.
All costs incurred by the Company in recovering overdue moneys shall be borne by the Purchaser.
The Purchaser shall not exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim in respect of monies owed to the Company for Products invoiced and delivered to the Purchaser.

DELIVERY

Any times quoted for delivery are estimates only and are to be reckoned from the date of the Company's confirmation of order or receipt by the Company of all necessary information, drawings, approvals and releases necessary to enable the Company to put the work in hand, and of any pre-payments agreed upon, whichever is the later.
The Company shall use its reasonable endeavours to maintain the quoted estimated delivery times but in the event of the Company failing for any reason to make delivery by the due date the Company shall be under no liability whatsoever for any loss (including loss of trade or profit) or damage whether arising directly or indirectly from delay in delivery.
Where the Company is arranging carriage, the Company shall be deemed to have delivered the Products when the Products are delivered to the address specified by the Purchaser and sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 32 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 shall not apply to any contract to which these Conditions apply. Where the Company is not arranging carriage, the Company shall be deemed to have delivered the Products when it gives notice to the Purchaser that the Products are ready for collection.
In all cases, whether a time for delivery is quoted or not, the time for delivery shall be extended by a reasonable period if delay in delivery is caused by instructions or lack of instructions from the Purchaser, or by any cause whatsoever beyond the Company's reasonable control.
The Company may withhold delivery of the Products in the event that the Purchaser is in breach of any of these Conditions. On such breach being remedied to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company, the Company will deliver the Products to the Purchaser within a reasonable timeframe.
If delivery is delayed through the Purchaser's default or if the Purchaser declines or delays in accepting delivery, then and in either such case the Company may (without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it) do all or any of the following:

charge as part of the price of the Products a reasonable storage fee and other costs incurred by the Company;
sell the Products for the Company's account;
cancel the contract as regards any Products that remain to be delivered thereunder.
The Company may deliver the Products by instalments and may invoice the Purchaser for each such instalment.
Each delivery shall be considered as a separate contract and the failure of any delivery shall not vitiate the contract as to others.

TRANSFER OF RISK

After delivery, the Products shall be at the Purchaser's sole risk in respect of all loss or damage arising from any cause whatsoever.
Where the Company is arranging carriage, the Company shall not be liable (i) for damage in transit or shortage of delivery unless a claim in writing is made within 7 days of the receipt of the Products at the delivery address, or (ii) for loss of the Products unless a claim in writing is made within 7 days of the invoice date.
The Purchaser will be deemed to have accepted the Products unless he rejects them within 7 days after their receipt at the delivery address.

GUARANTEE

The Company will make good by repair or, at the option of the Company, by the supply of a replacement part, defects which under proper use appear in the Products within 12 months after installation but not later than 15 months after the invoice date and which arise solely from faulty design, materials or workmanship.
No claim will be met by the Company under Condition 7.1 if, in the opinion of the Company:
the Products have been misused or subjected to neglect, carelessness or abnormal conditions or involved in any accident or attempt at repair, replacement or modification or dealt with contrary to any directions issued by the Company;
the Purchaser has not fulfilled all obligations under the contract;
notice is not given to the Company immediately after discovery of all defects; or the Company is not provided with reasonable facilities for carrying out repairs or replacements.
Parts returned to the Company in exchange for replacement parts shall become the Company's property.
Where the Company agrees to repair or replace a part or parts, the Company will pay the direct costs arising from such repair or replacement including where appropriate the cost of new parts, delivery of those parts (except as provided in paragraph 7.5) and all related reasonable charges. If defects develop in Products installed elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, the Company shall be under no liability to deliver replacement parts free of charge. In such cases the Company's liability to pay for the costs of delivering replacement parts by virtue of Condition 7.4 shall extend only to the cost of delivering such parts to the office of the Purchaser in the United Kingdom. Where the Purchaser has no such office, replacement parts will be delivered at the Purchaser's expense.
The guarantee extends only to the Products manufactured by the Company. Where a defect appears in goods supplied by the Company but manufactured by a third party, the Company shall (insofar as possible) extend to the Purchaser the benefit of any guarantee given to the Company in respect of a part manufactured by a third party.
The guarantee is given in lieu of all warranties and conditions implied into the contract by law and to the extent permitted by law, all conditions, warranties or obligations whether express or implied by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded.

INSTALLATION

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company the costs of installation will be charged separately including but not limited to all labour costs (whether at normal or over-time rates) and travelling expenses of workmen and staff. If installation work is interrupted or delayed by circumstances beyond the control of the Company, the Purchaser must bear all additional labour costs and travelling expenses occasioned by the interruption or delay.
Agreed prices for installation work are based on labour costs calculated at normal rates and do not include labour costs at over-time rates which may necessarily be incurred. Such additional charges shall be borne by the Purchaser.
In the event of defects in installation work, the Company shall repair or replace (at the option of the Company) free of charge any of the Products which prove to be unfit for use or the usefulness of which proves to be substantially reduced due to faulty installation, provided that the Purchaser informs the Company of the defect as soon as it is discovered, and provided that in any event no complaint of any defect in installation work shall be considered later than three months after completion of the relevant installation. Any further responsibility is hereby expressly excluded.

In the event of the performance of the Products failing to fulfil the terms of any such guarantee, reasonable time and opportunity shall be given to the Company to secure compliance. If the Company fails to do so after such reasonable time and opportunity, the Purchaser may cancel the contract only as regards such of the Products as fail to fulfil the terms of the guarantee ("the Defective Products").
